Notice of Availability of Additional Changes to Proposed Guidelines Implementing AB 1699*July 17, 2014

To Interested Persons:

On March 28, 2014, the Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD) published a Notice of Availability of Changes to Proposed Guidelines Implementing AB 1699, and invited comments on proposed revised guidelines issued on that date.

HCD received numerous comments during the comment period on the revised guidelines, which ended on April 11, 2014. In response, it is now proposing a second set of substantive changes to its original proposal. In accordance with Government Code section 50560(h), the Department hereby gives notice that it is accepting written comments on this second set of proposed changes.

The text of the guidelines, with the new proposed changes in strikeout and underline format, is available on HCD's website, at <http://www.hcd.ca.gov/fa/>, along with a summary of the comments received on the previous draft, and HCD's response to these comments. You may also obtain a hard copy of these documents by writing to the address below, or calling (916) 263-6106.

HCD will consider written comments regarding the proposed changes received by August 6, 2014. If you choose to comment, please reference the specific section of the guidelines related to each of your comments. Please direct comments to:
